Kareng Fund

If you are a self-employed Oregon artisan experiencing a career threatening crisis, the Kareng Fund is a part of your safety net. The Kareng Fund was started in 2003 to help those in circumstances that threaten their ability to work as an artisan.

Pottery Smash: Sunday, Dec. 23rd at 8:30am in the Holiday Market Food Court. Bid on your favorite pieces of pottery and other items handcrafted and donated by generous Saturday Market artisans. Then decide to “smash” it or take it home.

Kareng Fund Holiday Raffle: Monday, Dec. 24th. No need to be present to win one of the bountiful baskets of artisan inspired items. Tickets are $5 or $50. They are on sale at the Kareng Fund table by the front entrance.

Art Bingo: Sunday, Dec. 30th at 4pm at the new federal courthouse from 4-8pm. We will call 15 games with Fiddlin’ Sue and Tom Hannel performing between games. A prize will be given to the winner of each game. The winner is determined by a raffle ticket on each game. Each game has at least three winners.

We also have a member’s board sale on Sunday, Dec. 30th from 1-5pm. The 15th annual Kareng Fund auction (with percussion instruments and pottery Smash) will be held on Sunday at 8:30am. If this is your first Pottery Smash, do not be alarmed. It really is a celebration of our making.

The first time I visited Saturday Market, having no driveway vegetable stand with worms 25¢ a dozen. I preserved what we raised and caught. A small creation of what we raised in my life. The belief I could create my living was the Kareng Fund, a real gem of Saturday Market.
