From Kirsten

Good Morning Saturday Marketers!
Welcome back! It's going to be a hot one today. Be sure to stay hydrated.

I did booth weight inspections last Saturday, and I am pleased to announce most people had adequate weights. I do this on days that aren't necessarily windy to remind you that when the wind does come you need to be prepared. Weights are required every Saturday. So do your part to make the Market a safe place by using 25 lbs on each leg of your pop-up and 50 lbs on the base of umbrellas.

We are doing a promotion around the Oregon Country Fair where people post pictures of Saturday Market members booths at OCF and the person who posts the most member booths will win a $50 gift certificate to Saturday Market. This contest is open to all market members and the general public. So if you're at OCF look for our members' booths and post their picture to the original Facebook post for your chance to win.

Happy Selling!
Kirsten
